After more than four months in custody, we finally were able to persuade the District Attorney that the PC 288.7(a) Charges (life in prison) were incorrect. DA finally agreed to dismiss Count 1. Client now only had to defend against other charges that would require State Prison if he lost, but the case would not be a life case. Bail was now reduced to $50,000 from $1,000,000 which meant the client was able to be bailed out to spend time with his family.
