30 BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE CASE

31 This is a case of “self-defense”. The evidence will show that in this case there was a rush 32 to judgment, where the police automatically believed the testimony of the family and 33 failed to investigate Mr. self-defense allegations.

34 The evidence will show that Officer never invites Mr. to come to the 35 police station to physically describe the events that took place on December 19, 2016. Rather, 36 the investigation towards any issues of self-defense was limited and the officers rushed to 37 judgment after a 15 minute telephonic conversation with the Defendant.

38 Regarding the use of alcohol or drugs, there is no evidence to indicate that the Defendant was drunk or high at the time of the incident.
