THE PARTIES HAVE BEEN ADVISED THE CASE HAS BEEN REFERRED TO FAMILY COURT SERVICES AND TO COOPERATE FULLY WITH THE CHILD CUSTODY RECOMMENDING COUNSELOR DURING ALL STAGE OF THE MEDIATION/EVALUATION.

We represented a father falsely accused of domestic violence. Quite often, one party accuses the other of domestic violence to gain an unfair advantage over child custody. We are assisting the client in both the criminal matter as well as the Temporary Restraining Matter.

We recently had a trial in the restraining order case as indicated on this document and we represented FREDI (Dad).

After successfully cross-examining the mother, the court found insufficient evidence to believe that he perpetuated domestic violence to warrant a restraining order.

This was the first step in protecting his rights. We will also defend against the criminal accusations.
