

16 THE COURT: All right. So we should be able to get
17 that done today. I always take care of a couple of preliminary
18 issues. The first one is to make sure I have the correct
19 charging document. So the one that I have is the complaint
20 filed on May 7th of last year.

21 Is that the charging document we're working off of?
22 MS. : I believe so, Your Honor. I don't have
23 the file date, but it is one count of 273.5(a).

24 THE COURT: That's what I have. All right. Second, it
25 is always my practice to put on the record any negotiations that
26 have occurred.

27 So, Ms. , if you wouldn't mind doing that.
28 MS. : Yes, Your Honor. On May 9, 2024, I

1 have a note that indicates that the following offer was conveyed
2 to defense: To plead guilty to Count 1, 17(b), three years
3 summary probation, 90 days county jail, with DV terms. That
4 offer was rejected, and on May 13th, a second offer was made.
5 This one is to plead guilty to Count 1 as a felony, PS 210, with
6 standard DV terms.

7 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Feyzjou, is that a correct
8 summation of the negotiations?

9 MR. FEYZJOU: Yes.
